Two Households, Both Alike in Dignity

Julian

My mom thought I was handsome enough to be in movies. She said I looked like a young Robert Redford. I wasn't sure if I should take that as a compliment until I looked him up online and found out he was some really big movie actor from the seventies. I didn't really look like him at all except for the red hair and freckles, but if I stood in front of the mirror, took my glasses off, and squinted my eyes really tight, so just a little bit of blobby color came through, I could sort of see a resemblance.

Solo wagged his tail and looked up at me with wide hopeful eyes.

This panel shows a selection of red LEGO bricks. At the top, there is a large red 1x3 brick with a rotation icon to its left and a red square color swatch to its right. Below this is a collection of various red bricks of different shapes and sizes, with a trash can icon to the right. At the bottom, there are two tabs: 'LEGO® bricks' and 'Extras'.

Every build begins with a baseplate, which you can rotate. Try it on your own.

A vertical control panel on the right side of the interface. It contains several buttons: a rotation button (a circle with a curved arrow), a plus sign (+), a minus sign (-), a stack of three yellow bricks, and a 'Tips' button.

 Right Click = Remove Brick Arrowkeys = Rotate brick Cmd/Ctrl + z = Undo

Aesop's Fables
Timeless wisdom from ancient Greece.

The fox and the crow
A Fox once saw a Crow fly off with a piece of cheese in its beak and perch on a branch of a tree. "That's for me, and I am a Fox," said Master Reynard, and he walked up to the foot of the tree. "Goodly Mamma Crow!" he cried. "Have you just found a piece of cheese? Let me have a taste, please!" said the Fox. "You are just what I need for my dinner!"

The dog and its reflection
A Dog was carrying a piece of meat in its mouth to eat it in peace at home. On his way he had to cross a bridge across a brook. As he crossed, he looked down and saw his own reflection in the water. "What a beautiful dog with another piece of meat!" he made up his mind to do. He made a snap at the shadow in the water. But as he opened his mouth the piece of meat fell out, dropped into the water and was lost.

The two crabs
One fine day two Crabs from their home to see the world. "Hello, mother," they said as they walked. "How are you?" "I'm well, thank you," said the mother. "I'm well, thank you," said the mother. "I'm well, thank you," said the mother.

Let's Write A Book About School Libraries Together!

Brainstorm and share the things we should write about in our book.

Revised Chorus- 3/31/16

I like to go to the library everyday to start my day. Technology helps us share, we can send our research everywhere! We work and create, our library is really great! You, me, and our community! You, me, and our community

Chorus Idea:

I like to go to the library everyday to pick out books and start my day. The Fun never ends when I research with my friends. Digital tools helps us share about all we care. We can send our research everywhere! We can collaborate to make our research great! You! Me! And our community!

Luke S.

All the things that you can do in our library.

Verse #3: What Else Can You Do in the Library?

Our librarian is the best, she always picks out the best read alouds without rest. Her name is Mrs. James and she always remember our names. Meeting authors is exciting. Whether it's in person or Skyping. There is so much to see and do in our library. ??????????

Hi Mrs. Ferguson and my 2nd grade friends,

I love all of these ideas. It is going to be such great fun to write a book about libraries with you. Thank you for sharing these. Love, Mrs. Miller <3

Verse #2: What Types of Books are in the Library?

Libraries have all kinds of books. Don't stop by without taking a look. There are graphic novels, mystery, animal, fairy tales, informational, biography, reference, rhyming, funny, scary, just to name a few. But, scary books are what we mostly do! Our favorite books include, Diary of a Wimpy Kid, 39 Clues, Three Little Pigs, Nerds, Goosebumps, and every Cantata book tool! You can read them while standing, sitting, or laying down, all you need is an I-pad, computer or book to get yourself hooked!

Liam N.

Think of a new genre.

Audrey B.

What are some different things that you can find in a library.

Verse #1: What Our Library Looks Like...

Our library is right down the hall. It's so easy to get to for us all. You walk in and see books all around. Kids are collaborating with respectful sounds. Our school library is the best in our town!

We have cozy places to read. Mushroom chairs and pyramid towers ????? (magical) ?????? PebbleGo provides information all around our Bulldog Nation. ?????????? Celebrations are frequent and fun. Poem In Your Pocket is just one. ??????????

BEAU SOBOTKA

I chose to do a wax museum report on Ernie Davis because I saw a movie about Ernie Davis and thought he was a good football player. I know you will think he is awesome too.

ERNIE DAVIS
Football player for Syracuse University. He wore the number 44. When Ernie died in 1963, Syracuse retired the number 44. Now noone can be the number 44, because it's retired.
